SPECIAL AWARDS

PATTY KAZMAIER MEMORIAL AWARD

The award is presented annually by the USA Hockey Foundation to the top player in NCAA Division I women's ice hockey. The finalists are chosen by a 13-member selection committee composed of NCAA Division I ice hockey coaches, representatives of the print and broadcast media, and a representative of USA Hockey, the national governing body for the sport of hockey in the United States.

Selection criteria for the Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award include outstanding individual and team skills, sportsmanship, performance in the clutch, personal character, competitiveness, and a love of hockey. Consideration is also given to academic achievement and civic involvement. The award is supported in part by a grant from the National Hockey League Foundation.

Presented annually since 1998, the Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award is named in honor of the late Patty Kazmaier, a four-year varsity hockey letterwinner and three-time Ivy League champion with Princeton.

Kazmaier-Sandt passed away in 1990 at the age of 28.

ELITE 90

The ELITE 90, an award founded by the NCAA, recognizes the true essence of the student-athlete by honoring the individual who has reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level in his or her sport, while also achieving the highest academic standard among his or her peers. The Elite 90 is presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's 90 championships.
